"Ossipee Valley News"

Memorial Day weekend is here! Good luck to all of you who have been waiting for this weekend to jump start your businesses. The information booth will be open this weekend, so please stop by with your information if you have a chance or just to say "hi" and thank the RSVP volunteers who will be working there this weekend. It takes special people to do that job, and we thank you for being on the front lines of our tourism efforts!

Correction

Sorry to Valentino and Elaine CURLEY, but I miswrote your names in last week's newsletter...it is NOT Curley and Elaine Valentino. Thanks for reading my newsletters closely and keeping me on my toes ☺ By the way, they are looking forward to their GRAND opening this Saturday at 8 a.m. Stop by for great breads and pastries, with teas, coffees and more later in the summer. They are at the Tramway Plaza in West Ossipee.

Eggs and Issues

The next Eggs and Issues is Thursday, June 5th sponsored by the MW Valley Economic Council. Steve Norton of the NH Center for Public Policy will talk about "A Review and Analysis of Major Economic, Demographic and Budgetary Trends in New Hampshire." The NH Center for Public Policy has a long history of examining issues related to the State Budget and its impact on local communities, including the Mt. Washington Valley. Steve will discuss drivers of the budget and their potential for crowding out other important expenditures. Steve will also address revenues and the impact on business taxes and local property taxes. Eggs & Issues is held at the North Conway Grand Hotel, from 7 - 9 a.m. It is sponsored for 2008 by Northway Bank. The cost is $15 for Council and Chamber Members and $17 for non members. Please register by June 3rd by responding to this email, or by calling 447-6622. You can also fax us at 447-9947.

Moving Wall

The Viet Nam Moving Memorial wall got off to a bit of a rough start this morning, but everyone is okay and the wall is here in town and will be open to anyone interested in visiting it as soon as it gets put up at Constitution Park on Route 25E in Center Ossipee. Opening ceremonies will be Friday and closing ceremonies will be on Monday. Thanks to Dave and Susan Dube of Lazy Susan's and all the great volunteers helping out on this huge project. So many people will benefit from the wall being in the area in so many ways! THANK YOU all!

Karaoke

Bill Grover is at it again with another installment of karaoke at the Rivers Edge Grill and Tavern at the Indian Mound Golf Course in Center Ossipee! Stop by this SATURDAY after 7 p.m. to take your turn at the mike singing one of your favorite songs or just getting up to dance along with the rest of the crowd. It's a fun night – food and drinks are also available!

LITTLE HOOVES TACK SHOP

"Spring Clean up"Cyndi Phelan, owner and employees donated their time to paint shelters, fix old fencing and gates at Second Chance Rescue Equine Farm down in East Granby, CT., please visit their website, www.scrrescue.org LITTLE HOOVES TACK SHOP helps sponsor the farm with over 27 horses given up for one reason or another and now are looking for that "forever home". Through a gracious donation from LITTLE HOOVES TACK SHOP, pastures with new electric fencing were put into place, among many supplies donated for the horses themselves. Many volunteers were also there to get dirty, painted on and lend a helping hand.

5th ANNUAL MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND TENT SALE.....We are now into our 5th year of tent sales! From Friday, May 23 to Monday, May 26th from 8:00am til....whenever (7pm?), there will be many items that are only carried in the tent sales and not in the store: furniture, gifty items, placemats, tapestry, table runners, T-shirts, John Deere stuff.....it's a fun weekend....stop by and say hi!

Storytelling

On Thursday, May 29th, the Corner House Inn in Center Sandwich will mark the conclusion of their 20th season of Storytelling Dinners with a Storytelling Gala. Six different storytellers will be spinning yarns after dinner. Appearing on the program will be NH storytellers Andy Davis, Rusty Locke, Angela Klingler, Brian Hastings and Ed Fayle, and storyteller Jean Armstrong of Portland ME. Don't miss this entertaining smorgasbord of tales! The Storytelling Dinner begins at 6:30 PM, and the cost is only $16.95 per person, plus tax and gratuity. Gala evenings are always popular, and advance reservations are highly recommended! For more information about this program and other storytelling evenings contact the Corner House in Center Sandwich at 284-6219, or online at info@cornerhouseinn.com.

Have a safe and wonderful Memorial Day weekend!
